

"the Bazoom Girl"

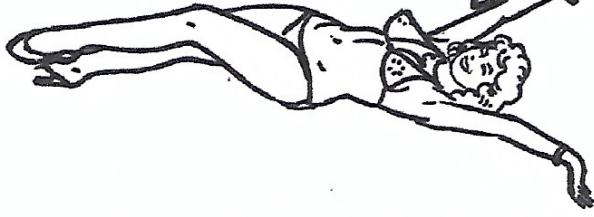

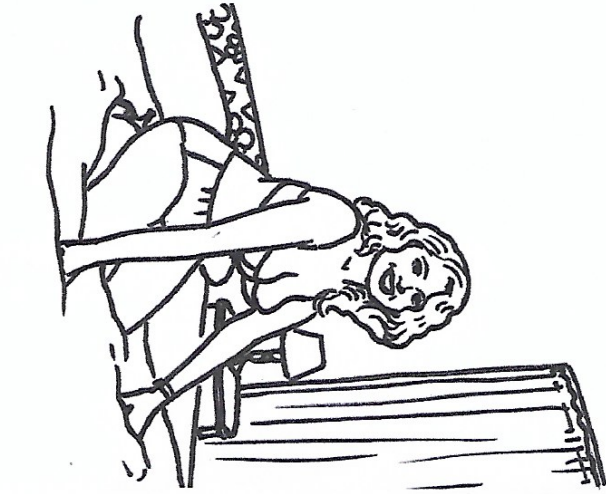

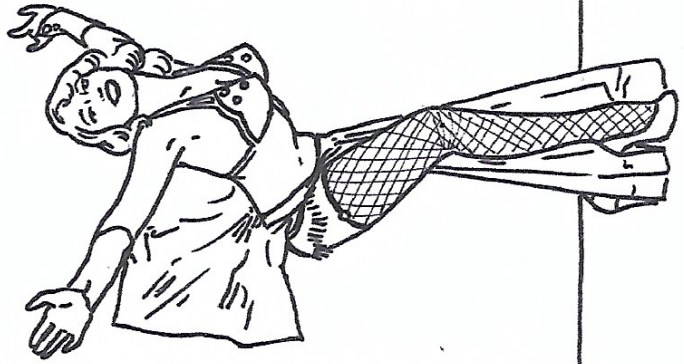

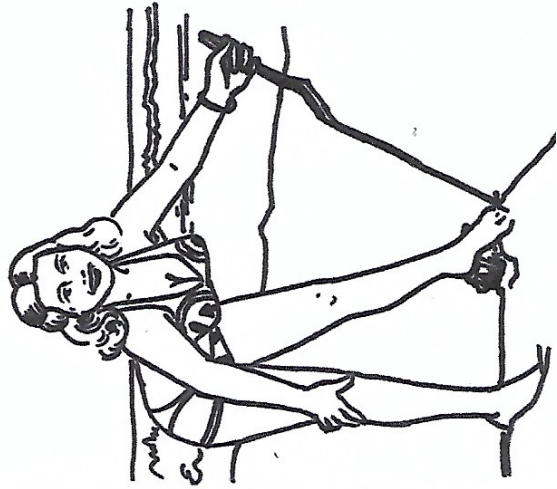

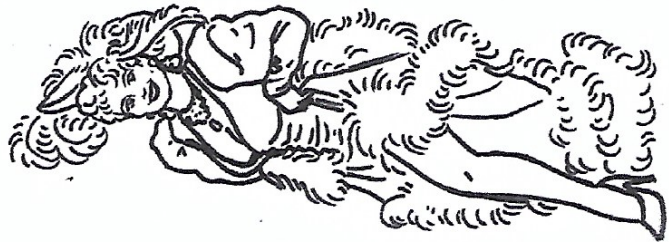

Jennie Lee

Jennie Lee was an entertainer, entrepreneur, and union activist who worked as a featured dancer through the 1960s.

An amateur burlesque historian, Jennie championed burlesque as a great American art form, and began collecting memorabilia from her industry.

Jennie grew her personal collection with photographs, costume pieces, and props—often donated by fellow performers! That collection grew to become the Burlesque Hall of Fame.

 @burlesquehall

<https://vimeo.com/burlesquehall>

www.burlesquehall.com

ONE PAGE ZINE!

1

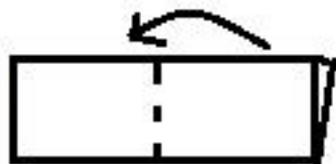

fold

you will need:

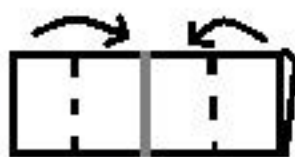

- A4 paper
- Scissors
- folding skills!

2

fold

3

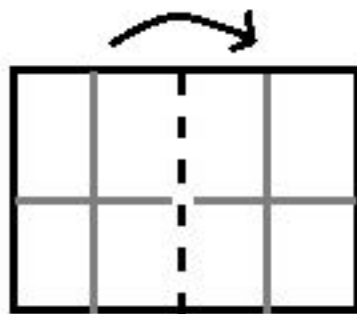

fold

4

unfold

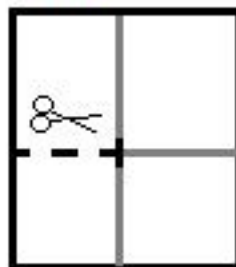

5

fold

cut

6

7

Unfold completely then fold as in step 1. Take hold of either end and push towards each other. It will begin to fold into a book shape. Flatten into a book.

To make more copies, unfold, photocopy and repeat steps 1-7!